1980 ANNUAL MEETING

The Law and Society Association in conjunction with the Research Committee on the Sociology of Law of the International Sociological Association will hold its Annual Meeting on June 5-8, 1980, at the Concourse in Madison, Wisconsin.

PROGRAM

Five sessions of eight panels each have been planned for these meetings. Sessions presently scheduled are:

- Law, Confidentiality and the Ethics of Experimentation in Sociolegal Research.
- Problems in Organizing Large Scale Research Projects.
- Reception of Social Science by Legal Institutions.
- Problems in the Social Science Evaluation of Legal Process.
- Institutionalizing the Study of Law and Society: Law Schools.
- Psychology and Law: Jury Research
- Psychology and Law: Nonjury Research
- Economics and Law.
- Legal History.
- Judicial Discretion in Sentencing and Sentence Reform.
- Police and Prosecutorial Discretion.
- Criminal Processing of Civil Disputes.
- Problems of Prisons: Current and Comparative Reasearch.
- Juvenile Justice System.
- White Collar Crime.
- Problems of Macro-theory of Law and Society.
- Conference on Critical Legal Studies Presentation.
- Linguistics and the Law.
- Organizational Theory and Courts.
- Law and Public Opinion.
- Quasi-experimental Research in the Criminal Courts.
- Law and Modernization.
- Law and Social Control.
- The Limits of Effective Legal Action.
- Violence in the Family.
Judicial Administration and Court Organizations.
The Civil Litigation Research Project.
Process of Dispute Resolution - Two Panels.
Citizen Participation in Dispute Processing.
Access to Justice.
The Study of the Bar in Chicago.
The Changing Roles of State Appellate Courts.
Empirical Research in Comparative Law: Civil Cases.
Discretion in Regulation.
Films about the Social Study of Law.

Persons desiring to participate in any of these panels or who desire to organize a panel should write to Professor Stewart Macaulay, Co-chairman of the Program Committee, Law School, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin 53706.

J. Willard Hurst will be celebrated and will give a lecture at a general meeting during the sessions. In addition, members of the Law and Society Association and the Research Committee on Sociology of Law of the International Sociological Association will hold concurrent business meetings.

REGISTRATION
The registration fee for the meeting is:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>Fee</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>LSA Members</td>
<td>$20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non LSA Members</td>
<td>$25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Students</td>
<td>$10</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Persons planning to attend this 1980 Annual Meeting of the Association are requested to register in advance by completing the form which is enclosed and returning it with a check made payable to the Law and Society Association for the appropriate registration fee to the Executive Offices of the Association, 200 W. 14th Avenue, Denver, Colorado 80204.

HOTEL INFORMATION
A block of rooms has been reserved at the Concourse. Reservations for these rooms must be received by the hotel on or before May 5, 1980. Rates for the accommodations are $30.50 for a single (one person) room, $38.50 for a double (two persons) room, and $4.00 for each additional person in the room. Reservations at the Concourse should be made directly with the hotel by completing the enclosed hotel reservation card and mailing it to the Concourse.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Professor Lawrence M. Friedman
Stanford University - School of Law
Stanford, California 94305