It is really worth to spend some of your spare time on seeing magnificent places in our capital. Although Warsaw was seriously destroyed during the World War II there are still parts where you can experience amazing bits of our cultural and architectural heritage. The Old Town with The Royal Castle are simply a must. Also The Wilanów Palace seems interesting especially considered as an example of Baroque style. In The Łazienki Park you can relax and admire the residence of the last Polish King - The Łazienki Palace.

POLISH CUISINE

It is often said that one has to first experience the national cuisine and then can make a statement either he likes or not the country itself. Therefore we would like to recommend some of our Polish specialties: zrazy beef, variety of pierogi (with different fillings) and soups, for example barszcz (red and white), famous for their rich flavour. You can find those dishes served among others in following places: 1. Karczma “Wojtkowice Stare 9” 21/21a Rynek Starego Miasta ( Old Town Market), 2. Bazylierek 3/9 Rynek Starego Miasta, 3. Cafe & Restaurant Literacka 87/89 Krakowskie Przedmieście St., 4. Restauracja Polska 21 Nowy Świat St.
